profi is the magazine on agricultural machinery for professional users:

Every month profi publishes in-depth and relevant information for technically minded readers, Focusing on detailed test reports on new and used arable and livestock equipment, DIY solutions, repair instructions, workshop tips, and explanations of electronic systems as well as machine servicing tips that save good money.

profi always focuses on the practical side of farming. All tests and assessments are carried out in the field, from which we derive valuable tips for owners and operators. Our tests help readers to form an opinion, assist in making machinery buying decisions and provide them with arguments for their negotiations.

Farm machinery and nothing else – that's profi.Publication:

profi offprints

Without a doubt, a good advertisement for your product is also the positive expert opinion. That is why profi offprints are in such high demand, because reports in profi enjoy the maximum trust of the readers. They are the ideal opinion leaders in your mailing, at your field day or in the display at the trade show stand and at the specialist trade. From printing to on-time delivery and, if required, translation into various languages we ensure that everything runs smoothly. Profi offprints are available both in print form as well as digital.

Digital reach in the LV Agrar network

Distribute the digital special not only through your own channels, but also use the reach of the LV agricultural media. For this purpose, we offer you precisely tailored target groups.
